IcePlex welcomes Skating Coach Samantha Mohr

Ms. Mohr has been teaching figure skating most recently in Kentucky, teaching beginner level to advanced skating. She began skating at the age of 9 in Louisville, KY. Ms. Mohr has trained in Colorado Springs at the Broadmoor SC and in Newark, DE at the University of Delaware FSC. She has been on the PSA Coaches Honor Roll and also a PSA Certified Free Skating Instructor.

Samantha's philosophy on coaching: Coaching skating is all about seeing in others what they cannot yet see in themselves. The key to coaching successful athletes is instilling in them that they can overcome all obstacles by working hard, having persistence, and never losing self-confidence.

"Samantha has attended several of my G2C camps and is a knowledgeable and dedicated coach." Audrey Weisiger, World and Olympic Coach, President of Grassroots to Champions.
